HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL AND STUDIO

Inner Fire Yoga is located in Madison, Wisconsin. Marit Sathrum is the owner and director of Inner Fire Yoga. The studio first opened as Bikram Yoga Madison in October 2002, and changed its name in April of 2007. In January 2008, after expanding the class offerings to include Power Flow, Slow Flow, Inner Fire Flow and Yin Yoga, the studio relocated to an expanded, custom-designed studio location (“West Studio”) at 5003 University Avenue. A second location (“East Studio”) on the East side of Madison in the Marling Apartment building opened in January of 2019. The two studio locations offer a full schedule of yoga classes in four separate studio rooms every day of the week. We offer workshops, special classes such as “Aroma Yin”, two retail boutiques that feature yoga accessories and logo clothing items. Inner Fire Yoga offers a weekends-only teacher training program which began in 2011. We have since graduated over 260 yoga teachers. Our program is certified by the national Yoga Alliance as a Registered Yoga School (RYS) at the 200-hour level.

WEEKEND TRAINING SCHEDULE

The training takes place over the course of eight weekends, Friday evening through Sunday afternoon. Four weekends will take place in the fall and four weekends in the wintertime, spanning from October to March. Training does not take place every weekend. There are always 2-3 weeks in between training weekends.

Some time is required outside of training weekends, such as anatomy/physiology homework, journaling assignments, and practice teaching.

INNER FIRE YOGA 200-HOUR YOGA TEACHER TRAINING CURRICULUM

PART 1: FOUNDATIONAL TRAINING & INNER FIRE FLOW

During the first four weekends, you will learn the foundational yoga poses, breathing exercises and the flow sequence of our 60-minute Inner Fire Flow yoga class, as carefully choreographed by Inner Fire Yoga's owner and select senior Inner Fire Yoga teachers. Inner Fire Flow is a sequenced class (the same poses in the same order every time) that combines the best of the Original Hot Yoga sequence with a Power Flow (vinyasa) style of yoga. After learning the Inner Fire Flow sequence, you will be able to teach a basic yoga class right out of training.

You will also learn the history of yoga, yoga philosophy (8-limbed path of the Yoga Sutras), business and ethics of yoga, and meditation principles in your first four weekends of training.

You will be broken out into groups with each person required to teach a portion of an Inner Fire Flow class with your group members. This will be considered your midterm exam.

PART 2: POWER FLOW & SEQUENCING

During your last four weekends of training, you will learn additional poses and how to sequence your own authentic, vinyasa-style flow yoga class. You will learn to sequence classes with specific themes in mind, as well as to sequence classes for different levels of student experience and capabilities.

You will also learn more yoga-related topics in this phase of training, such as Yin Yoga, subtle body/energetic principles, and different lineages of Power Yoga, such as Ashtanga and Baptiste.

You will be broken out into groups and required to sequence your own unique, 60-minute, vinyasa-style class with your group members. Each of you will teach a portion of your class as your final presentation on graduation day.

Finally, at the end of training you will present individually on a yoga-related topic that interests you. Individual presentations should be no longer than 15 minutes and can cover anything related to yoga or the yogic lifestyle (a short, themed sequence; an informational presentation; an art project; etc.).

The quizzes and homework will be graded as pass/fail. During your practice teaching and final presentation, you will be critiqued by experienced teachers and sometimes be given written feedback. If homework is not submitted when due or tests/quizzes not taken when scheduled, you will be responsible to make arrangements with the director to make up the missed assignments. If you do not make these arrangements you will not be allowed to attend the next scheduled training session, which may result in the constructive notice of withdrawal as stated in the CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY section.

INNER FIRE YOGA CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

A yoga code of ethics will be discussed during training. Students are required to follow the rules and policies of Inner Fire Yoga Center and the teacher training program, as well as the Yoga Alliance Code of Ethics (page 16).

Policies include but are not limited to the following:

No substance use or abuse during school hours.

No smoking allowed on the premises.

No breach of confidentiality.

If behavior is exhibited that conflicts with the code of conduct, the mission statement of Inner Fire Yoga or its Teacher Training program, this behavior may be grounds for termination from the program at the discretion of the owner/director of Inner Fire Yoga. Students dismissed from the program may apply for a future teacher training program if they wish to be reconsidered, but the reason for prior dismissal from the program will be addressed in the enrollment process and may be a determining factor for re-acceptance into the program.

YOGA ALLIANCE CODE OF CONDUCT

The code of conduct is a declaration of acceptable ethical and professional behavior by which all registrants agree to conduct the teaching and business of yoga. It is not intended to supersede the ethics of any school or tradition but is intended to be a basis for yoga principles. 1. Adhere to Applicable Law
2. Follow the Yoga Alliance™ Scope of Practice
3. Follow the Yoga Alliance Anti-Harassment Policy
4. Follow the Yoga Alliance Sexual Misconduct Policy
5. Do No Harm

8. Maintain Honesty in Communications

The complete Yoga Alliance Code of Conduct can be found on the Yoga Alliance website.

ATTENDANCE, TARDINESS, AND LEAVES

Please note: 100% attendance is required in order to graduate and receive a certificate of completion from Inner Fire Yoga teacher training.

In the case of unforeseen emergency absences, please notify the director of teacher training immediately. The student is responsible to schedule make-up time through the director or the teacher who taught the missed session(s), or watch the video recordings of the session, if available. If a video recording is not available for the particular session that was missed, make-up training must be scheduled by the participant at an additional cost of $90/hour for private time with a trainer.

If you have pre-planned events that conflict with attendance in the program, please contact us to discuss your options. Absences for medical disabilities or emergencies such as a death in the family are deemed unforeseen emergency absences and will be forgiven.

The student is expected to be at each session approximately ten minutes before the scheduled start time. Class attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session and attendance records will be maintained throughout the training. If the student is late or absent without prior notice more than three times, this will result in a deduction of one hour from your total contact hours and will have to be made up with a trainer at a later date at an additional cost to the student.

If an absence is due to medical disability as verified by a medical professional in the form of a letter that states the diagnosis and recommended dismissal from the program, a leave of absence will be granted. In these instances, the refund policy will apply to unused tuition and the student must reapply for the next available session and pay the difference of any remaining tuition and/or related administrative fees (if any). If tuition is increased for the next available training, the student must pay the higher rate.

EMPLOYMENT AFTER GRADUATION

Inner Fire Yoga does not offer placement services nor do we guarantee employment at our studios after graduation.

You will receive training in the marketing and business of yoga and learn fundamental marketing skills to pursue a career as a yoga teacher.

That said, if Inner Fire Yoga announces a need for teachers, any graduate is welcome to apply and request an audition. We are also happy to provide professional references if the student performed well in the program.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS

Inner Fire Yoga Teacher Training encourages students to discuss in person or in writing with the training director any concerns, complaints, or suggestions that would be helpful in improving the program and/or student experience. All complaints should be directed to the director of teacher training, Marit Sathrum, either in writing (preferred) or in person. If the issue is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may submit a formal complaint to:

State of Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services
